

A woman with long dark hair and sunglasses stands in a grand, classical architectural setting with arches and columns. She is wearing a long-sleeved, knee-length dress with intricate floral embroidery in shades of pink, gold, and brown on a light beige background. The dress has a decorative neckline and flared sleeves with lace-like details. She is also wearing a matching shawl with a wide border and floral patterns. She is holding the shawl in her left hand. The floor is a checkered tile pattern. In the top left corner, there is a quote and a product code.

"Fashion is only the attempt to realize art in living forms and social intercourse."

"Fashion is part of the daily air and it changes all the time, with all the events.
You can even see the approaching of a revolution in clothes. You can see and feel everything in clothes."

"What's my style is not your style, and I don't see how you can define it.
It's something that expresses who you are in your own way."

"What you wear is how you present yourself to the world, especially today, when human contacts are so quick. Fashion is instant language."
